Jerusalem: One City, Three Faiths

Karen Armstrong

Venerated for millennia by three faiths, torn by irreconcilable conflict, conquered, rebuilt, and mourned for again and again, Jerusalem is a sacred city whose very sacredness has engendered terrible tragedy. In this fascinating volume the author traces the history of how Jews, Christians, and Muslims have all laid claim to Jerusalem as their holy place, and how three radically different concepts of holiness have shaped and scarred the city for thousands of years. 35.ARMS

The Baptists

Dr. Claude Broach

A short history of the Baptists. 35.BROA

No Man Knows My History: The life of Joseph Smith (Mormons)

Fawn Brodie

In 1823 a young man named Joseph Smith had an encounter with an angel who led him to a cache of golden plates purporting to be the history of the lost tribes of Israel. Out of these new gospels - and out of Smith's own charismatic personality and sense of mission - arose an authentically American religion, the Mormon faith. A remarkable history of the early Mormon church. 35.BRODIE

The Presbyterians

Robert Brown

A short history of the Presbyterians. 35.BROW

University of the Nations: Gregorian University of Rome

Philip Caraman, S.J.

Forward in the Spirit

Preface by Remi DeRoo, Edited by Pearl Gervais & Grant Maxwell

This is the grassroots story of the People's Synod, Diocese of Victoria, B.C. as experienced and reflected upon by dozens of men and women of all ages, different occupations and varied points of view. These Synod guidelines address major realities of everyday life in both Church and world, ranging from sexuality to spirituality, from family and community questions to justice and peace issues in the family of nations. 35.DERO

The Catholic Avant-Garde

Jean-Marie Domenach, Robert de Montvalon

This book documents the power and depth of the underground revolution which prepared the way for Vatican

II. The authors have brought together articles and documents from World War II to the second Vatican Council, offering a firsthand history of this extraordinary effort to build a new Church - before the word aggiornamento became popular. 35.DOME

Judaism and Christianity

Catholic Customs & Traditions

Greg Dues

From Candlemas to the Easter candle, through relics, Mary, the saints, indulgences, the rosary, mystagogia, feast days, laying on of hands, and more, the author traces the vast riches of the traditions, customs, and ritual practices that make up the Roman Catholic experience. A fascinating volume for both pre-and post-Vatican II Catholics. This book encourages a respect for and enjoyment of the varied traditions which give flesh to the Roman Catholic Church. 35.DUES

Portraits of Canadian Catholicism

M.W. Higgins, D.R. Letson

Profiles of influential Canadians, an exciting record of the past and present - an innovative biographical study, engaging, historical, eminently readable. 35.HIGG

Ecumenism and Religious Education

Loyola University

The completed study of two issues of Volume XIX of Lumen Vitae. The first section takes up the meaning of the word ecumenism from the Catholic, Protestant and Orthodox viewpoints. The second section studies the mentalities prevalent in a number of countries. Section three studies current pastoral activities inspired by the ecumenical spirit. Section four investigates psycho-sociological situations. Section five sets down certain principles and methods for an ecumenical catechesis. The final section discusses the presentation of doctrinal themes in an ecumenical spirit. 35.LOYO

Inside the Vatican

Bart McDowell

The author guides you through the Vatican. He begins with a historical perspective. In subsequent chapters he explains the workings of the Holy See, the church's labyrinthine government. Through beautiful and exclusive photographs and revealing text, Inside the Vatican celebrates a small, dynamic community unique in the world. 35.MCDO

Guidelines for Ecumenical & Interfaith Action in Ontario

OCCB

These Guidelines can serve as a vehicle for the continuing education of all the faithful; promote a consistency of attitude and practice across the Province of Ontario in the Church's mission for unity; provide persons in pastoral ministries with a handy reference for the Catholic principles underlying ecumenism which have been recommended to the whole Church since Vatican II. 35.OCCB

Johrei: Divine Light of Salvation

Johrei is the word Mr. Mokichi Okada used for God's healing light. It refers to a mode of healing, administered through the hands, that can restore us to whole health by cleansing the impurities in both body and spirit. This is the only English-language work to date that accurately conveys the major teachings of Mr. Okada. It contains sections on the method of healing he taught. It also includes a brief biography, a bibliography and research reports on nature farming and the effects of Johrei in cancer patients. 35.OKADA

Five Lost Classics: Tao, Huang-Lao, Yin-Yang

In 1973, among the many unique documents discovered in the richly furnished tomb of a Han-dynasty aristocrat, were five books written on silk, primary texts of Huang-Lao Taoism and Yin-yang philosophy that had been lost to mankind for more than two thousand years. This excavation created a sensation when they were first published, even leading to the foundation of a new religion in Taiwan. Now Robin Yates offers the first complete translation of these precious and unique texts to be published in a Western language. 35.VARI
